Be Positive

Vivek Datir
9th Rose

"Be Positive", a very common phrase that we hear in our day to day life. When ever a person is nervous by the pressure of on coming event or by some failure, there words give him motivation to go ahead and perform better next time.

One of the reasons for the success of Great Personalities in the world is their positive attitude. These personalities have faced many failures in their lives, but their positive attitude kept them alive in this competitive world. The way we look towards our life decides how our life will be.

We, as students face many situations where our mind is diverted by nervousness and stress. Exams, Sports etc. competitions, projects, all mount the burden on our brain. But our attitude comes to our rescue. We should just keep in our mind that 'I can do the task.' We should never be afraid of competition, but we shouldn't ever underestimate anybody.

We should be serious about our aims and yet enjoy our life at the same time. Because "Life is not only living but its the positive way of living."

So my request to everybody is that, 'Be Positive' and keep in mind that 'All is well and will be well.'

Child Labour

Aboli Nimbalkar

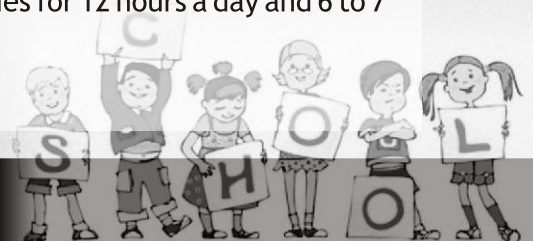

IXth A

Child labour is practiced since very early times. Not only in India, but even in the other parts of the world, the children less than the age of 14 years, work for other people in factories, industries and other small scale jobs. Many acts and laws are have been passed to stop this fracture, but still, many small children are seen, working in Tea Stall, Restaurant or Dhabas. According to the constitution of India, child labour is considered a crime and those who hire children for jobs are considered as criminals.

Increase in population indirectly means, increase in demands. Demands in every field, ranging from grocery to education.

Here is the list of the work done by the Children :

- 1) Firework :
In many parts of the country, small children work in firework and crackers company. At Awakashi, even where the children work hard whole day, they only get less then Rs. 20/- as daily wages.
- 2) Diamond Mining :
In the survey of 1997 done by Indian Labour Organisation, it was found that, more than 25% of the total hired worker were children less than 14 years of age, in Surat, where they work in diamond mining.
- 3) Beedi Manufacturing :
More than 30% of the total hired workers in India work in Beedi Manufacturing. This was the result of the survey done in 1994 and 1995.
- 4) Silk Industries :
350,000 bonded children work in silk industry and get paid Rs. 10 every day. Children as young as 5 years work in these industries for 12 hours a day and 6 to 7 days a week. These innocent children are forced to dip their hands in scalding water to palpate cocoons to get the silk.

5) Domestic Labour :

Official estimation give reports that more than 2,500,000 children are engrossed in domestic labour. They work in Hotels, Dhabas, Restaurant etc. NGO's even estimate that more than 20 million children are employed in this field. An Act was passed on October 10, 2006 to bar domestic labour.

6) Construction :

Many small children even participate in house and office building work. They have to carry heavy loads such as cement bags, machines etc.

7) Brick Kilus :

Children are also found in the Brick Making.

More than 12.6 millions of children work in hazardous industries, though the Indian constitution has promised free and compulsory education for children between 6 to 14 years of their age. Many NGOs like CARE India, Child Relief and you (CRY) also contribute in prohibiting the child labour. "Pratham", in 2005, involved the biggest rescue operation of children workers. 500 child laboures were freed from zari sweat shops in North East.

We all are lucky that we study in such a good school and live in a very healthy and proper environment. But what about the children who are of the same age as us and work in such dangerous situations without education? Think about it and also about whatever we can do to help them and educate them. Go ahead, be prepared, live and let live.

A crab was once running on the sea shore and was admiring its beautiful foot-prints.

Suddenly a huge wave splashed and washed away the foot-prints.

The crab told the wave : "I considered you as one of my best friends, then what made you do this?"

The wave replied : A fisherman was following your foot-prints, that's why I cleared it off

Moral : "Relationship means caring beyond imagination."

Life is for Living

Noopur N. Bhatkar

Life is for living, so live life to the most
Don't give up till the end, even if it becomes worst
Try harder till the end of the race, as life is a sport which all have to face.

Make the best of everything acquired
Only a little bit of patience is required
Life is for cheering
And certainly not for weeping

Life is not peaches and creams,
nor sunshine and dreams,
A happiness and sorrow,
A tear today, a smile tomorrow

Life is full of experiments and mistakes.
So just go ahead and do not hesitate.
Learn to make all passive adjustments.
To make life, full of excitements

In the ashes of dead hopes try to find luring amber
And always remember "Make the best of life to reach the goal," cause even a constant drop of water, can make an ocean whole,

Only You

Riya Agrawal

A person can make you feel high,
A person can make you feel low,
But only you can decide,
Which way you want to go

A person can hurt you mentally,
A person can hurt you physically,
But only you can place,
A limit on you abilities.

A person can make you laugh
A person can make you cry
But only you can make
Decisions for your life.

I guess what I'm trying to say
That when you're living day to day
Don't live by what people do,
But live by what you know is true

Shadow

My shadow follows me wherever I go,
It does what I do from head to toe.

Whether I'm holding a book or bat
It does the same, that copy cat

Whenever I stand in light,
My shadow is always in sight

Sometimes short and sometimes wide,
It always remains by my side

It's with me each and every time,
Whatever I do, a good deed or crime

It won't get tired whatever I do,
Neither will it stop until I stop too

I wish I had a living shadow with whom
I could share my happiness and sorrow.

Life without Parents

For me, life without parents would be like a body without soul. Parents not only provide shelter but they are a roof in this challenging world. From our childhood, parents often take all our decisions but sometimes we are not convinced with them and I too experience the same. But we should respect them because they know what is good or bad for us.

In one phase of our life, we seek someone to take decisions for us because we fail to do the same for ourselves. Parents are the root of a well grown tree and children are it's branches. As we all know, no branch and leaves could be grown without the roots.

Likewise, no children could ever imagine their would without parents, not even me.
